

Does your loved one have a mental illness such as clinical depression, bipolar disorder, PTSD or schizophrenia?

The National Alliance for Mental Illness (NAMI) Rensselaer County is committed to empowering people living with mental illness at all levels of recovery by offering hope, assistance, and education.

NAMI promotes research, fosters understanding and combats discrimination and stigma through outreach to the community.

SUPPORT EDUCATION HOPE

Improving lives of families and caregivers affected by mental illness in Rensselaer and surrounding counties.

WE ARE HERE FOR YOU

Support programs are always free.

FAMILY SUPPORT GROUP

Family members meet for support in a group experience. Our main focus is how to take care of ourselves while caring for our loved ones.

First and Third Wednesday of each month.

Time: 6:30-8:00 p.m.

University at Albany School of Public Health,
One University Place, Rensselaer, NY

Second and Fourth Tuesdays

Church of Latter Day Saints, 420 New Scotland
Ave, Albany NY 12208 form 6:00pm-7:30pm.

NAMI SIGNATURE PROGRAMS

provide support and practical insights for families. They are taught by family members having lived similar experiences with their loved ones.

BASICS

- Basics—for parents and caregivers of children and adolescents with mental illness. 6 week program.

FAMILY TO FAMILY

- Family to Family—lecture series for family members of adults with mental illness. 12 week program.

PEER TO PEER

For those with serious mental illness interested in establishing and maintaining wellness and recovery. 10-week lecture series

IN OUR OWN VOICE

A unique public education program developed by NAMI, in which two trained individuals with brain disorders share compelling personal stories about living with mental illness and achieving recovery.

HEARTS & MINDS

Online, interactive, educational initiative promoting wellness in both mind and body.

PARENTS & TEACHERS AS ALLIES

An in-service mental health presentation for current and future school personnel. Educators become familiar with the early warning signs of mental illness in children and adolescents and learn how to support students experiencing mental health challenges.

FAITHNET

Outreach to faith communities to help leaders and congregations understand mental illness better and its effect on the whole family. Designed to build bridges between spirituality and community support systems.

HOMEFRONT

For family, caregivers and friends of military service members/veterans living with mental illness. 6
